Grab a BRICC Quick!!

There's still time to get in on this great program!

BRICC stands for Building Readers In Culver City – and that's just what we've been doing! BRICC is a children's

President's Message

It is with great enthusiasm that I write this quarter's President's Message, announcing the second annual Culver City Reads program! Culver City Reads is a community-wide reading celebration that encourages people of all ages to read a very special book together. The Friends introduced this program last year with the classic book "The Wizard of Oz." The program was so successful we are making it an annual event!

This year, based on input from the community, everyone is reading "Peter Pan," the timeless story of adventure and magic by J.M. Barrie. We have planned a series of exciting events and activities revolving around this book to take place over the next several months. The Schedule of Events, included within this newsletter, is full of pixies, pirates and possibilities! So be sure to mark the dates on your calendar. It all culminates with an "Under the Stars" screening of Universal Pictures wonderful family film, "Peter Pan" at Veterans Park on Saturday, August 19! Through all these events, we hope children and adults alike will see how books come alive.

This program brings together community members, businesses and organizations all working towards a common goal – to promote reading, education and literacy in our community. I am very pleased to announce that Sony Pictures Entertainment, the Culver Hotel and Laing Urban have once again agreed to partner with us (each at our "Peter Pan" level of sponsorship, with a contribution valued at $10,000 or more) and that the Culver City News will be publicizing our events and activities (at our "Tinkerbell" level of sponsorship, valued at $5,000 or more). Please be sure to pick up a copy of this paper every week to follow our events and activities. We have several additional sponsors who are listed in this newsletter and on our website.

If you are interested in joining this distinguished group, please complete the Sponsorship Form (available on our website or at the Library) and return to us as soon as possible. We have developed a wide-range of sponsorship opportunities and each provides unique benefits for you or your business. Sponsorship can be achieved by a monetary or non-monetary contribution (such as a gift certificate or an item for a drawing) or some combination of both. Please consider how you or your organization can contribute to the success of this reading celebration. All contributions, large and small, are greatly appreciated! With your participation, this program will once again be a huge success.

This quarter the Friends take on another challenge, that of writing a book (since the Friends are all about books). We are preparing a taste-tempting cookbook, featuring favorite recipes from members of our community. Tying in with our Peter Pan theme this year, we have appropriately entitled the cookbook "A Treasure Chest of Recipes." We invite you to submit your favorite recipe (or two), place an ad, purchase a cookbook, and/or include coupons to your place of business. All proceeds generated from this cookbook fundraiser will benefit the Culver City Julian Dixon Library. Please see the insert within this newsletter for more information.

This newsletter is filled with details about this quarter's programs. For more information, you may pick up a flyer at the Library, call 310-559-1676, visit our website www.ccfol.org, or look for details in the Culver City News. I welcome you to get involved and I look forward to seeing you, your family and your friends at these exciting summer events!

literacy program aimed at motivating children to read. BRICC rewards children for every age-appropriate book they read, by placing a "BRICC" featuring their name on the wall of the Library. Acquiring ten "BRICCs" signals the building of an entire house. Prizes are awarded weekly for each BRICC. Grand prizes are also awarded at the end of contest to each child who completes a house.

The entire program is free due to the generous sponsorship of Laing Urban, a division of John Laing Homes, whose headquarters are located in Culver City.

The current session will continue through June 27, 2006. All winners and participants will be invited to an awards ceremony and ice cream party at the Library on July 15, 2006 at 3:00 PM. Instructions and entry forms are available on our website or at the Library. It's easy and fun!

This session marks the start of the BRICC program which is intended to be a year round offering, with three 12-week sessions spread throughout the year.

Some Special Thank You's to the Friends of Partner with the Friends

We are seeking additional businesses in the community that would like to partner with us to provide discounts to our members. If you are a business owner or know of a company that might be interested in working with us, please email Sharon at info@ccfol.org. What a wonderful way to show your support and recognition of the importance of literacy and education in our community. To show our thanks, we will publicize your business in the Friends newsletter and on our website.

the Friends!

TO: The Culver City News, Editor Glenn Esterly and Publisher Ron Meyer for promoting the Culver City Reads program in their paper each week!

TO: Emily and Elaine Hirohama for bundling the Culver City Reads flyers and to Eadie Siegel for distributing them to the schools. In support of our effort to encourage all families to participate in this year's program, these volunteers distributed nearly 7,600 "Schedules of Events" to CCUSD schools to get the information to children and their parents.

TO: CCUSD Superintendent Laura McGaughey for her lovely letter of support. We truly appreciate the school district's support of Culver City Reads 2006.

TO: Jay Handal of San Gennaro Café in Brentwood for his generous donation of pizza and salad for our April program. We can always count on his support for the Friends' programs.

TO: All the book donors who give their gently used books to the Friends. Our book sales are an important revenue source for the Friends and the Library!

Please keep those book donations coming! (No torn, tattered or dirty books, please.)

A Treasure Chest of Recipes

The Culver City Friends of the Library are preparing a taste-tempting COOKBOOK featuring favorite recipes from members of our community. The cookbook will be beautifully illustrated, easy-to-read, professionally printed and bound and sure to be treasured for years.

Each cookbook will contain helpful hints, recipe category dividers, a table of contents, an index and special pages of interest to our community. All proceeds generated from this cookbook will benefit the Culver City Julian Dixon Library. See the insert to this newsletter for more details.

Congratulations, Julie Todd!

The Culver City Friends of the Library sends a hearty congratulations and a fond farewell to Julie Todd on her graduation from library school. With her new Masters Degree in Library and Information Sciences, Julie is moving on to a new position at the Hawthorne Library. We'll miss you, Julie!

2006 Culver City Reads:

Peter Pan

Culver City Reads is a community-wide reading fest sponsored by the Culver City Friends of the Library to promote reading, education, and literacy. This program encourages people of all ages to read the same book. After loads of input from our community, the book selected for this year is "Peter Pan" by J. M. Barrie. Throughout the summer months, the Friends will hold a series of events and activities revolving around this book to show children and adults how books come alive and to raise funds for the Library.

Everywhere you look this summer, expect to see Peter Pan, pixies and pirates!

Some Peter Pan Highlights: The Friends July 29th fundraiser at the Culver Hotel is not to be missed! Prepare for the biggest, baddest pixies and pirate party of all time! This is our most important fundraiser of the year. Xing Hu, the manager of the hotel, and Jim Husted and Eddie Harrah, the new restaurant and bar owners, are going all out for a great event! The Friends thank them, in advance, for their very generous support! This will be the first big event at the fabulous new restaurant opening soon at the Culver Hotel. SAVE THE DATE -- and watch for more information in early July!

On Saturday, August 19, experience true community and family fun at our "Under the Stars" screening of Universal's film "Peter Pan" at Veterans Park. CBS-TV referred to this movie as "The Best Family Film of the Year" when it was released! Highlights of this event include: a costume parade, games, souvenirs, food, Peter Pan characters, live entertainment, a drawing for great prizes and audience participation "fun packs." Bring the whole family!

After reading "Peter Pan," join the stimulating and informative book discussion groups for adults (July 13) and teens (July 26).

Culver City Police Chief Don Pedersen Got Caught Reading:

Check out the display case in the Library to see who "Gets Caught Reading" each month.

Executive Board Meetings:

The public is invited to attend the Friends' Executive Board meetings, held the second Tuesday of each month from 6:30 to 7:30 PM in the Culver City Julian Dixon Library Community Room. We welcome involvement from our members and look forward to seeing you at our meetings.

Peter Pan Books and T-Shirts for Sale

A variety of Peter Pan Books for readers of all ages are available for purchase at the circulation desk of the Library. Prices: Adult version ($10), Young Adult version ($8) and Child version ($6). We only have a limited number of copies, so get yours while they're still available!

Also available for purchase are T-shirts for this year's Culver City Reads program, specially designed by talented, graphic artist Timothy Lambert. (Thank you, Tim, for the fabulous work on the Culver City Reads t-shirts and logo design and for the generous donation of your time!) Pick one up at the Library or at any of our Peter Pan events. Adult T-shirts come in sizes, S, M, L, XL, 2X ($15) and Youth T-shirts in sizes S, M, L ($10). They are "must have, commemorative T-shirts"

Other Peter Pan and Tinkerbell merchandise (on display in the lobby of the Library) will also be for sale at all our Culver City Reads programs. The stickers, stampers, purses and pirate hats are all just too cute! What a fun and easy way to support the Library!

DO YOU BELIEVE? THEN BECOME A SPONSOR!

The success of Culver City Reads 2006 depends on participation and support from businesses, civic organizations, and individuals like you. There are many ways you or your organization can contribute to this community celebration, including one of many levels of sponsorship listed on the sponsorship forms (available in the Library or at www.ccfol.org), so please participate in whatever ways you can!

Please also visit your favorite local restaurants and businesses and encourage them to participate as well!

WANT TO VISIT NEVERLAND? THEN BE A VOLUNTEER!

We need volunteers to assist at the movie event on August 19, working at food and game booths, distributing program books, setting up and breaking down booths and helping make sure everyone has a wonderful time! We also need to borrow some shade canopies; do you have one we might use for the day?

We are also looking for baskets to use to package and display auction donations at the July 29 fundraiser. If you can spare any baskets in good condition, please drop them off at the Library, marked "Attention Sharon."

Can you spare a couple of hours during Fiesta La Ballona? We need volunteers for the Friends' booth at the Fiesta on Sat., 8/26 and Sun., 8/27.

Interested in volunteering? Contact: Sharon Zeitlin at 310-559-1676 or info@ccfol.org

Mother Goose and the Art of Time Travel

By Elaine Hirohama

At the Story Time on May 2nd, children and their parents were taken back in time to the turn of the century when there were no televisions, radios, computers or Ipods. Instead, seventy attendees turned on their imaginations and took that journey back in time with L. Frank Baum and his wife, Maud (aka Robert and Clare Baum). In honor of Mother Goose Day, Robert and Clare Baum, and their friend, Dusty, returned to the Culver City Julian Dixon Library and shared a story about Humpty Dumpty from the book, Mother Goose in Prose, by L. Frank Baum, which was written three years before The Wizard of Oz. The captivated audience listened to the Baums and took a short journey back to a gentler time. After the program, children enjoyed craft time by making their own Humpty Dumpty and brought a little memento home on their return to the 21st Century.

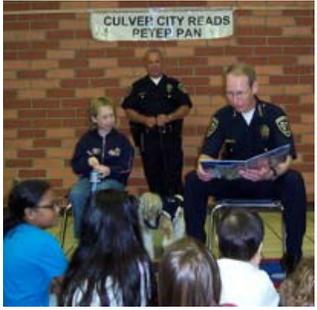

LOOK WHAT THE FRIENDS HAVE BEEN UP TO!!

POLICE DAY AT THE LIBRARY

Just days after starting with the Culver City Police Department, brand new Culver City Police Chief Donald Pedersen was reading stories to children at the Library in recognition of National Children and Police Day. Chief Pedersen explained his three part instructions for life, as the children listened with rapt attention: 1) always do your best; 2) always do the right thing; and 3) treat others how you want to be treated. The Chief was joined at the event by his daughter Jessica, Reserve Officer Colin Gilbert and Police Mascot Scout.

Our new chief is a 25-year police veteran, began his police career in Hawthorne and spent six years as Assistant Chief and Chief of Police in Signal Hill before being appointed out of a field of over 60 applicants to the coveted post of Chief of Police for Culver City.

Peter Pan Goes to the Farmers Market

By Linda Simmons

Culver City became Neverland when Peter Pan, Captain Hook, Wendy, Tinkerbell and a variety of pirates came to the Farmers' Market on May 16, 2006. Downtown was buzzing as the fanciful characters walked down Main Street handing out flyers about the Culver City Reads Program.

Books, stickers and candy were on sale to get people into the spirit of reading the timeless classic book, Peter Pan, written by J. M. Barrie. Children of all ages came by to see Peter and Wendy. Everyone was encouraged to attend the upcoming events sponsored by the Friends of the Library. Parents and children alike promised to come to the next Story Time event on June 6, 2006 at the Culver City Julian Dixon Library. Costumes were recommended.

The Friends who helped to make this magical day were Alan Corlin, Sharon Zeitlin, Sandi Levin, Elaine Hirohama, and Phil and Linda Simmons. The look of adoration in the eyes of the children as they followed Peter Pan and Tinkerbell gave living proof to the value of reading.

PETER PAN STORY TIME

By Linda Simmons

The childrens' corner of the Culver City Julian Dixon Library had many special visitors on the night of June 6, 2006. Little readers (and big readers!) of all ages came to hear Peter Pan and Captain Hook read books to them. Tinkerbell was there too and she asked the young readers, who were dressed in costume, to stand up and tell everyone who they were. We had little Tinkerbells, little Peter Pans, several pirates and Ariel was there as well as Belle from Beauty and the Beast. Over 120 children of all ages listened carefully as Peter Pan and Captain Hook told them to keep reading with their parents and by themselves.

Later the children made treasure chests and colored pictures of the Peter Pan characters. Peter Pan, Tinkerbell and Captain Hook all signed books for young readers to remember the night. (Peter Pan books will be for sale at all Culver City Reads events this summer and can be purchased at the circulation desk of the Library, too!) Several parents came with their little readers and a great time was had by all. The Library was full of energy and happy little readers who are anxiously waiting to participate in all the upcoming Culver City Reads events, especially the outdoor screening of Universal's wonderful family film, Peter Pan at Veterans' Memorial Park on August 19. The Friends who helped to make the night magical were Phil Simmons as Peter Pan, Linda Simmons as Tinkerbell, Dan Gallagher as Captain Hook, Sharon Zeitlin as the Director, librarian Julie Todd, Steven Hirohama, Emily Hirohama, Angela Yu and the rest of the pirate crew.
