President's Message

Dear Friends,

As Summer '08 draws to a close, the Friends bid a fond adieu to Stuart Little, the mouse featured in our summer reading program. The after-hours pajama party held in the library was attended by nearly 200 people who enjoyed popcorn served by the Culver City Fire Department, pizza, games, face painting and then a screening of the Sony picture. I am grateful and a little bit in awe at the level of community support our events receive!

A big thank you to our volunteers: Yvette Washington, Susan Obrow, David Kuechle, Christina Gargiullo, Ed Rybka, Renee Pryor, Bobbie & Jim Aboud, Steven Hirohama, Emily Hirohama, Danny & Rose Peterson, Mary Noller and Shelby Silpasvang, as well as our board, Sharon Zeitlin, Alan Corlin, Sandi Levin, Elaine Hirohama, Steve Wieber, Wayne Pulliam, John and Nancy Kuechle, Lauren Mead, and the library staff Laura Frakes, Stephen Trumble, Susan Bodok and Joan Mead.

There are three special "thank you's" I want to give. First to the Culver City Fire Department who once again volunteered to come to our summer event and serve popcorn. Second, to the Culver City News, which featured our Stuart Little festival all summer long, ran pictures and articles about our programs, helped run our summer coloring and essay contests, and even published the winning entry! Finally, the summer reading program could not have happened without the generous support of Sony Pictures Entertainment which gave us the film, granted permission to use copyrighted images, and loaned us the incredible Stuart Little costume that made such an impression at all our events. They have been an enthusiastic and continuing supporter of the Friends and of the library and we are all very grateful.

I hope that all of you who had your picture taken with Stuart have looked it up on ccfol.org. Thanks to Morgan Genser of the Culver City News, professional quality portraits were taken during the pajama party which you can download anytime as a souvenir.

As we move into the fall, we have more fine programs scheduled as well as book sales and a craft fair just in time for the Christmas season. See you all then!

Kevin Commins, President, Culver City Friends of the Library

FUN AT THE FAIR!!

It was great seeing so many Friends at our booth at this year's Fiesta la Ballona as well as meeting many new people. As in previous years, we raised a substantial amount of money for the library and had fun doing it! A big thank you to our volunteers Patty Krause, Carole Gustin, Gary Silbiger, Renee Pryor, Lisa Pendse, Ethan Friedman, Joan Mead, Wanda Anesh, Aileen Zeidman, Daniel Wong, Elaine Hirohama, Alan Corlin, John & Nancy Kuechle, David Kuechle, Christina Gargiullo, Wayne Pulliam, and Steve Wieber. It takes a lot of work to run a booth and we appreciate all our volunteers. See you at next year's Fiesta!

THE WOMAN WITH THE HUNGRY EYES

Distinguished film historian Hugh Munro Neely will give an illustrated lecture at the Library on Saturday, September 20, from 3:00 to 4:30 pm on the life and career of THEDA BARA, the silent actress who introduced the word "vamp" into the language. Movie audiences of 1914 were enthralled by Bara, purportedly an exotic, Egyptian-born temptress who lured men into her bed and then callously tossed them aside to die. Her publicity called her a sexual vampire, "the woman with the wickedest face in the world," a creature that no man could either resist or survive. Mr. Neely will trace how a nice Jewish girl from Cincinnati became the symbol of destructive sexual urges and what her meteoric career reveals about American attitudes toward sex in the last century.

Mr. Neely's lecture last year on Mary Pickford was well attended and enthusiastically received, and we're pleased he agreed to speak again this year. The lecture is free and open to the public.

DONATION APPRECIATION!!

The Friends are extremely grateful for the wonderful donations that keep our programs and events going! In addition to the very generous financial support we receive from our many contributors, the Friends are very fortunate to receive all manner of "in kind" donations.

The thousands of books donated each year by the community keep our book sales going and raise tens of thousands of dollars for the library. The merchandise donated for sales and auctions makes our events fun and interesting and generates revenue that can be used for library programs and services.

The yarns, needles and supplies that have been provided by the community have allowed the teen knitting group to enjoy the chance to learn new skills, share talents with others, make new friends and create gifts for friends and family. (And you know that at the library we love a good yarn!) The program's success is largely due to the great support by the library staff and the community.

For more story time fun, remember that the library also offers free story times for families on Tuesday evenings at 7:00 pm (no registration required) and for toddlers and preschoolers on selected Monday and Wednesday mornings (registration required for the 10 week Fall session).

In addition, Family Place Workshops for children ages 1 to 3 and their parents/caregivers are offered most Monday evenings from 6:30-7:45 p.m. A different community resource specialist will be available at each session, with games and activities offered for the children. Space is limited and reservations may be made by phone or in person at the library. Please direct questions to Joan Mead or Gregory Barnett.

IMPORTANT: 2009 CCFOL Board Nominations Open!!

2009 Officers Needed

The Friends need volunteers! In accordance with our by-laws, the Executive Board is accepting nominations for the following positions:

President • Vice President • Secretary • Treasurer

Any individual interested in serving as an officer must make it known to the Friends' Executive Board by the close of the December Board meeting. The December meeting will be held on December 16, 2007 at 6:30 P.M. in the Community Room at the Culver City Julian Dixon Library.

2009 Board Members Needed

Several members of the current Executive Board will be stepping down this year and others would like to change positions. As a result, the Friends are seeking new, enthusiastic, dedicated volunteers to join the Board! Membership on the Board is fun and rewarding, so please consider signing up for this great opportunity! In addition to the officers' positions, the other Executive Board positions are: Membership chairperson, Programs chairperson, Publication chairperson and Book Sale chairperson for the 2009 Executive Board.

Interested? Please contact Kevin Commins at info@ccfol.org prior to December 16, 2009 or come to the December 16 board meeting.

Selection Procedure

Only those individuals who have given their consent to serve can be nominated for or elected to an office. If more than one candidate seeks an office, either a ballot will be mailed to the membership or a vote will be taken at the annual membership meeting in January of 2009. The procedure will be decided by a majority vote of the Executive Board.

BOOK SALES & MORE!!

The Next Sale: November 22, 2008, 9:00 am – 3:00 pm. Find some great treasures as you sift through the Friends’ amazing quarterly display of gently used books on an incredible array of topics! As always, there will be a HUGE SELECTION of materials: Art • Biographies • Business • Children’s • Classics • Computer • Cooking • Foreign Language • History • Home and Garden • Medical • Music • Mysteries • Novels • Paperbacks • Reference/Textbooks • Religion • Romance • Science Fiction • Self-Help • Sports • Travel • Audiocassettes • CDs • DVDs • Videos and More! This book sale will also feature a Craft Fair with a vast assortment of arts and crafts from local artisans! If you would like to reserve a booth to sell your handmade arts and crafts items, please email slevin@cllaw.us or check the library for application forms starting in August.

The Latest Success: Our September 13, 2008 book sale was a tremendous success, raising nearly $2500! Thank you to all our dedicated members, volunteers, library staff and public participants who help make these sales so fun and successful!

Donations Welcome: Our book sales are successful due to the donations of books and media generously donated to the Friends by our community. If you have clean, gently used books, VHS tapes, DVDs or CDs cluttering up your shelves and you're itching to clean, remember that we have a drop-off box for donations at the back of the library. If the box is full, you can just leave your donations on the loading dock. One hundred percent of the sales proceeds will be used to help improve our library.

Volunteers Welcome: We would love to have your help at the book sales! Set up starts around 7:30am and we start breaking the sale down at 2:30pm. See you then!
